Situated in the prestigious South District, this elegant three-level townhouse is part of an exclusive enclave that combines privacy with sophistication. Upon entering, a split-level design leads down to the right, revealing a welcoming lounge with a charming fireplace, perfect for cosy evenings, and expansive glass doors that open onto a west-facing terrace, ideal for enjoying sunset views. On the left side of the split level, a stylish dining area seamlessly flows into a fully fitted kitchen equipped with premium appliances, also opening to the terrace, making it perfect for indoor-outdoor dining and entertaining. The second level offers two comfortable bedrooms and a family bathroom with sleek ceramic finishes. This level also includes a lock-up garage, currently repurposed as a convenient storeroom and home office, with direct access to the property. The top floor is dedicated to the master suite, featuring an en-suite bathroom and fourth bedroom. This level boasts abundant storage options and a charming loft area, adding both space and character. Private parking just steps from the entrance completes this unique property, making it a truly desirable home.
